

Get to Know...

LAWRENCEVILLE Goodwill Store

Where?

The Lawrenceville store is located at 125 51st Street, off of Butler Street. The store is near the Sears Outlet Center and sits back to back of Goodwill of Southwestern Pennsylvania's Workforce Development Center.

When?

This store opened on July 13, 2011 with the hours of 9:00am-7:00pm, Monday-Saturday, and 12:00pm-5:00pm on Sunday. The staff looks forward to serving you!

Who?

The Lawrenceville store has three supervisors: Team Leaders, Peter Kosloski and Tiffany Way, and Manager, Irene Schrecengost. There are seven part-time employees who drive sales. The store also recently welcomed Amy Dove, Training Store Education Coordinator, and Kieasha Goods, Career Development Facilitator-Retail, to the team. With approximately 4,320 square feet, ComputerWorks of Lawrenceville is also located within the facility and is an additional attraction to the shopping experience in Lawrenceville.

Donations?

The entrance to the donation center is located next to the store entrance; however, donations are also accepted at the rear of the building. At this time the majority of donations are from the Retail Operation Center (ROC); therefore, the merchandise we receive comes from numerous areas.

Interesting Facts:

The Lawrenceville store is the first Goodwill store to be an official training store. The goal is to provide excellent training for a variety of Goodwill programs, with the end result being good permanent employment either at Goodwill stores or in the community.

Why is it successful?

Daily the staff work towards achieving sales and productivity goals, but their ultimate success will be when the trainees get permanent employment.